

Women's Research Initiative Grants

Call for Proposals | October 30, 2020 Deadline for February 2021 Funding

DESCRIPTION

The BYU Women's Research Initiative (WRI) Grants support research and creative work focusing on women.

- ELIGIBILITY The following are required to be eligible to apply for a grant:
- Full-time BYU faculty in CFS-track position
  - A final report must be on file for any previous WRI or Scholarly grants received by the applicant

PROPOSAL Grant proposals should include the following elements in the order listed below:

- Cover page (see page 2)
- Approval signatures from department chair and dean or associate dean (on coversheet)
- Project description (up to 3 pages)
- Budget and budget narrative (less than 1 page)
- References (no page limit)
- Curriculum Vitae (up to 5 pages)

Proposals should be submitted as a PDF to Lynn Patten (lynn.patten@byu.edu) in the Office of Associate Academic Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies

DEADLINE October 30, 2020

BUDGET Project budgets should follow the guidelines below:

- Up to $5,000
- Eligible expenses include supplies, travel, and student wages (faculty salary is not an eligible expense)
- Funds must be expended in the 2021 calendar year

SELECTION Recipients are selected by reviewers selected by the University Research Council. Awards are based on:

- Adherence to proposal guidelines
- Strength of focus on contexts and issues related to women
- Strength of proposal's research, creative plan, and/or reasonable methodologies
- Potential for quality publications or creative products in investigator's field
- Consistency of proposed budget to meet overall objectives

The number of applications exceeds the number of proposals, and the number of awards depends on the funds available and the strength of the proposals.

REPORTING Final reports

- Due by April 30, 2022
- Submit reports as a PDF to Lynn Patten (lynn.patten@byu.edu) in the Office of Associate Academic Vice President for Research and Graduate Studies
- Reports should describe accomplishments during the term of the grant, the current status of the project, how the budget was expended, and list publications or creative works submitted for review or planned for future submission
- A final report is required before submitting another WRI proposal
